

Gelani Lights

Your home can be all decked up, but without the right kind of lighting, it is always going to look drab. A unique piece of light or lamp adds warmth to your space and gives it a certain character. We went around town to shortlist the best light stores for you, and were left de-lighted!

Bookmark them all to add the right amount of zing to your home.

If you're an Andheri, chances are, you must have passed by a stretch of Nagar. While most of them have their offerings on display, we chose to walk into a store that looked quite ordinary from the outside, but super colorful from the inside. Shady Ideas is the mecca of the most colorful quirky lamps and lights you will ever see. This brand specializes in curating lights with recycled acrylic, that's fused with handmade paper. We saw a piano lamp that we knew we'd come back to buy.

Super close to Station, is a lighting store that has loads of lighting options spread across a variety of aesthetics and makes. Looking for something old-worldly and retro? They've got lamps that look like vintage street lamps. Are your tastes strictly Bohemian? They've got loads of Turkish lamps in many colors, and lamps with colorful resin work on them. Is your style modern AF? We spotted cool, minimalistic chandeliers too!
